Re: Complaint of John Wingo and [redacted] against Wesley J. Cornwell

Dear Mr. and [redacted]

This letter is in response to your correspondence received on October 19, 2023, in which you express concerns about Wesley Cornwell's involvement in your pending case against 3M. Mr. Cornwell is a paralegal employed by McCollum Crowley, PA, the firm that until recently represented you in that action.

Please be advised that the Director's Office is tasked with investigating allegations of unprofessional conduct and prosecuting disciplinary actions against attorneys licensed to practice law in Minnesota or if not licensed in Minnesota, attorneys providing or offering to provide legal services in Minnesota. See Rule 8.5(a), Minnesota Rules of Professional Conduct. Therefore, this Office does not have jurisdiction to investigate whether Mr. Cornwell acted inappropriately in his capacity as the paralegal assigned to your case. If you believe your rights have been violated, you may wish to speak to an attorney who can advise you of your legal rights and remedies in this matter. This Office cannot provide you with legal advice or legal representation.

Accordingly, this Office will take no further action with regard to your correspondence.

Very truly yours,

Office of Lawyers Professional Responsibility
